NEW QUESTION: 3You had been taking a short vacation, and when you come into work on Monday morning, Blue is already at your door, waiting to talk to you. "We're got a problem," Blue says, "It seems that the password used by our Vice President of Engineering has been compromised." Over the weekend, we found this account had logged into the network 25 times. The Vice President was not even in the office over the weekend. "Did we get the source of the compromise yet?" "No, but it won't surprise me if it is our new neighbors at MassiveCorp. I need to you to come up with a realistic plan and bring it to me tomorrow afternoon. This problem must be resolved, and like everything else we do not have unlimited funds so keep that in mind." Based on this information, choose the best solution to the password local authentication problem in the Executive building. A. Since you are aware of the significance of the password problems, plan to address the problem using technology. You write up a plan for Blue that includes the following points: 1. For all executives you recommend no longer using passwords, and instead migrating to a biometric solution. 2. You will install retinal scanners at every user desktop in the executive building. 3. You will personally enroll each user at each desktop. 4. You will instruct each user on the proper positioning and use of the scanner. 5. The biometric system will replace all passwords for authentication into each user Windows system.

B. Since you are aware of the significance of the password problems, and since you do not have unlimited funds, you plan to address this problem through education and through awareness. You write up a plan for Blue that includes the following points: 1. All end users are to be trained on the methods of making strong passwords 2. All end users are instructed that they are to change their password at a minimum of every 30 days 3. The administrative staff is to run password-checking utilities on all passwords every 30 days 4. All end users are to be trained on the importance of never disclosing their password to any other individual 5. All end users are to be trained on the importance of never writing down their passwords where they are clearly visible.

C. Since you are aware of the significance of the password problems, you plan to address the problem using technology. You write up a plan for Blue that includes the following points: 1. You will reconfigure the Testbed.globalcorp.org domain to control the password problem. 2. You will configure AD in this domain so that complex password policies are required. 3. The complex password policies will include: a. Password length of at least 8 characters a.b. Passwords must be alphanumeric b.c. Passwords must meet Gold Standard of complexity c.d. Passwords must be changed every 30 days d.e. Passwords cannot be reused.

D. Since you are aware of the significance of the password problems, you plan to address the problem using technology. You write up a plan for Blue that includes the following points: 1. For all executives you recommend no longer using passwords, and instead migrating to a token-based authentication system. 2. You will install the RSA SecurID time-based token system. 3. You will create SecurID user records for each user to match their domain accounts. 4. You will assign each user record a unique token. 5. You will hand deliver the tokens to the correct executive. 6. Users will be allowed to create their own PIN, which will be 4 characters long. 7. The tokens will replace all passwords for authentication into each user Windows system.

E. Since you are aware of the significance of the password problems, you plan to address the problem using technology. You write up a plan for Blue that includes the following points: 1. For all executives you recommend no longer using passwords, and instead migrating to a token-based authentication system. 2. You will install the RSA SecurID challenge-response token system. 3. You will create SecurID user records for each user to match their domain accounts. 4. You will assign each user record a unique token. 5. You will hand deliver the tokens to the correct executive. 6. Users will be required to use token codes from the One-Time token code list. The token codes will be alphanumeric and will be 4 characters long. 7. The tokens will replace all passwords for authentication into each user Windows system.

Answer: D

NEW QUESTION: 4 Reference in a principal auditor's report to the fact that part of the audit was performed by another auditor most likely would be an indication of the:

A. Principal auditor's recognition of the other auditor's competence, reputation, and professional certification.

B. Different opinions the auditors are expressing on the components of the financial statements that each audited.

C. Divided responsibility between the auditors who conducted the audits of the components of the overall financial statements.

D. Lack of materiality of the portion of the financial statements audited by the other auditor.

Answer: C

Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: Choice "A" is correct. Reference to another auditor indicates division of responsibility for the audits of the components of the overall financial statements. Choice "B" is incorrect. Reference to another auditor would not generally be made if the other auditor's portion of the financial statements were immaterial. Choice "C" is incorrect. The reference in the report is not meant to recognize the qualifications of the other auditor, but simply to divide the responsibility between the two auditors. Choice "D" is incorrect. The reference to the other auditor would be made regardless of what type of opinion is expressed by each auditor.
