NEW QUESTION: 1 A male client is admitted to the psychiatric unit after experiencing severe depression. He states that he intends to kill himself, but he asks the nurse not to repeat his intentions to other staff members. Which response demonstrates understanding and appropriate action on the part of the nurse?
A. "I understand you're depressed, but killing yourself is not a reasonable option."
B. "Don't do that, you have so much to live for. You have a wonderful wife and children. The client in the next room has no one."
C. "We need to discuss this further, but right now let's complete these forms."
D. "This is very serious. I do not want any harm to come to you. I will have to report this to the rest of the staff."
Answer: D
Explanation: (A) To the client, suicide may be a reasonable action and the only one he can cope with at this time. (B) This response indicates to the client that his intention to commit suicide is not important to the nurse at this time. (C) The client is so depressed that he is not able to see the positive aspects of his life. At no time should the nurse discuss another client's problems in conversation. (D) This statement tells the client that the nurse recognizes his problem is of a serious nature and will take all steps necessary to help him.
