=====Topic 8, Parnell Aerospace Overview Overview
Parnell Aerospace designs materials and components that are used for commercial airlines. Parnell has a main office in Dallas and branch offices in Seattle, Atlanta, and New York. Parnell has an Active Directory Domain Services (AD DS) domain named parnellaero.com for the Dallas and Manta offices. The forest and Domain functional levels are set to Windows Server 2008.
Domain Controllers The domain controllers are displayed in the following table: The Seattle and New York offices have their own child domain named sales.parnellaero.com. The domain controllers are displayed in the following table. Parnell also has a number of satellite offices, without domain controllers, that act as both sales and design locations. Employees have the ability to walk into any office to connect to their respective domain and access the software they need. All servers in each office run Windows Server 2012 R2 and are 64-bit platforms. Client devices in each office run Windows 7 and Windows 8.1.
Expansion Parnell Aerospace is expanding to Great Britain. Parnell creates the domain uk.parnellaero.com for the new offices to use. Parnell creates a new sales office in London. Parnell also purchases a company in Glasgow named Flight Build that can expand Parnell's research and design division. Flight Build has low security and limited bandwidth. Flight Build has the domain name flightbuild.com. Flight Build has a single domain controller named FB-DC. Flight Build users use an application that must run on the domain controller. Flight Build's server environment contains a server that runs Windows Server 2012 R2 and has Microsoft SQL Server 2012 installed. Ports 12345, 6789, and 10111 have been assigned for System Center Virtual Machine Manager (SCVMM) connections. The domain controllers for the two new offices are displayed in the following table:
Business Requirements Accessing Data Globally Employees in any office, including satellite and branch offices, must be able to work securely on internal applications, independent of device, and still access all of the information they need. At times, a large percentage of users congregate in the same geography to work: on a specific task and environments need to scale quickly to meet the demands. Application performance In order to allow multiple simultaneous users to access the design application. The design application is published by using SCVMM. Data Conformity All data needs to be synchronized between all offices to ensure that all users have the latest information available. Disaster Preparedness In case of natural disaster, Parnell Aerospace must be able to continue work without disruption. Servers In any location must be restored rapidly. Expansion The domain flightbuild.com must be renamed to integrate it into the domain uk.parnellaero.com. Users in the newly acquired Glasgow office report issues with long logon times. Parnell Aerospace must prepare a new domain controller for the logon traffic. Parnell plans to deploy an additional SCVMM server in the Flight Build environment. Sales reports Parnell Aerospace's sales organization uses a large number of sales reports that are in the Excel format. The reports are very large and accessed often throughout the day. Users report that it takes a long time to open the files, even when they are using the local network. Technical Requirements Mixed environment The existing environment contains Windows servers and legacy UNIX servers. All UNIX servers run 32-bit operating systems. A server named UNIX1 is a file server. Sales reports Sales reports must be saved on an automated storage tier named Sales Reports. All file servers are equipped with both solid-state drives and standard hard-disk drives. Sales Application A sales application in the parneraero.com domain must be accessible to users outside of the network during sales calls. The application is configured by using automatic triggering of VPN connections. Design Application A design application must allow automatic logon by using VPN when users in the parnellaero.com domain are working from a location outside of the office. Users report the authentication fails. UK Division Sales Sales people in the new UK domain must be able to access a web-based sales application named UKSales that is used in the geography by using any device including hand-held units, smart phones, and laptop computers. Active Directory The Active Directory Recycle Bin must be enabled throughout the forest.
