NEW QUESTION: 1Hyperledger Composer has following two main components? (Choose two.)
A. Business Network Archive
B. Composer Playground
Answer: A, B
Explanation:Explanation
Hyperledger Composer has following main components:
1) Business Network Archive: Capturing the core data in a business network, including the business model, transaction logic, and access controls, the Business Network Archive packages these elements up and deploys them to a runtime. Business Network Archive files are stored as ".bna" files.
2) Composer Playground: This web-based tool allows developers to learn Hyperledger Composer, model out their business network (domain), test that network, and deploy that network to a live instance of a blockchain network. The playground keeps the development model in browser storage, allowing them to be easily uploaded or downloaded. The playground also allows for CRUD (create, read, update, delete) operations to be performed on asset transactions which are created and logged. Composer playground offers a repository of sample business networks that can provide a base for building your own business network
