NEW QUESTION: 3 What is an employer's responsibility when workplace conditions pose a threat to an unborn child?
A. Do nothing. It is up to employees to protect their unborn children.
B. Allow only sterile employees to work in jobs that pose a threat to unborn children.
C. Advise the employee of the potential threat, and allow the employee to make the decision.
D. Move the employee into a different job that does not pose a threat to the unborn child.
Answer: C

Explanation:Explanation/Reference:Answer option C is correct. The Supreme Court determined in Automobile Workers v. Johnson Controls, Inc. that it is the responsibility of prospective parents to protect their unborn children. Although employers must provide information about potential hazards, the employer may not decide for the employee whether to work in a job that poses a risk to an unborn child. See Chapter 8 for more information.
Chapter: Risk Management
Objective: Risk Identification
