NEW QUESTION: 1After reloading a router, you issue the dir command to verify the installation and observe that the image file appears to be missing. For what reason could the image file fail to appear in the dir output?A. The reload command was issued from ROMMON.B. The confreg 0x24 command is configured.C. The secure boot-image command is configured.D. The secure boot-comfit command is configured.Answer: C
Explanation:Explanation/Reference:
Explanation:Secured files will not appear on the output of a dir command issued from an executive shell because theIFS prevents secure files in a directory from being listed. ROM monitor (ROMMON) mode does not have any such restriction and can be used to list and boot secured files.
