NEW QUESTION: 4When managing cash and short-term investments, a corporate treasurer is primarily concerned with:A. Investing in government bonds since they have no default risk.B. Liquidity and safety.C. Minimizing taxes.D. Maximizing rate of return.Answer: BExplanation: Cash and short-term investments are crucial to an entity's continuing success. Sufficient liquidity must be available to meet payments as they come due. At the same time, liquid assets are subject to significant control risk. Therefore, liquidity and safety are the primary concerns of the treasurer when dealing with highly liquid assets. Cash and short term investments are held because of their ability to facilitate routine operations of the entity. These assets are not held for purposes of achieving investment returns.
