NEW QUESTION: 1 Refer to the exhibit. An organization needs to enable access to their customer data from both a mobile app and a web application, which each need access to common fields as well as certain unique fields. The data is available partially in a database and partially in a 3rd-party CRM system. What APIs should be created to best fit these design requirements? A) A Process API that contains the data required by both the web and mobile apps, allowing these applications to invoke it directly and access the data they need thereby providing the flexibility to add more fields in the future without needing API changes B) One set of APIs (Experience API, Process API, and System API) for the web app, and another set for the mobile app C) Separate Experience APIs for the mobile and web app, but a common Process API that invokes separate System APIs created for the database and CRM system D) A common Experience API used by both the web and mobile apps, but separate Process APIs for the web and mobile apps that interact with the database and the CRM System A. Option C B. Option B C. Option D D. Option A
Answer: A

NEW QUESTION: 4 (1) On my nineteenth birthday, I began my trip to Mali, West Africa. (2) Some 24 hours later I arrived in Bamako, the capital of Mali. (3) The sun had set and the night was starless. (4) One of the officials from the literacy program I was working was there to meet me.

(5) After the melee in the baggage claim, we proceeded to his car.(6) Actually, it was a truck.(7) I was soon to learn that most people in Mali that had automobiles actually had trucks or SUVs.(8) Apparently, there not just a convenience but a necessity when you live on the edge of the Sahara.(9) I threw my bags into the bed of the truck, and hopped in to the back of the cab.(10) Riding to my welcome dinner, I stared out the windows of the truck and took in the city.(11) It was truly a foreign land to me, and I knew that I was an alien there.(12) "What am I doing here?" I thought.(13) It is hard to believe but seven months later I returned to the same airport along the same road that I had traveled on that first night in Bamako, and my perspective on the things that I saw had completely changed.(14) The landscape that had once seemed so desolate and lifeless now was the homeland of people that I had come to love.(15) When I looked back at the capital, Bamako, fast receding on the horizon, I did not see a city foreboding and wild in its foreignness.(16) I saw the city which held so many dear friends.(17) I saw tea drinking sessions going late into the night.(18) I saw the hospitality and open-heartedness of the people of Mali.(19) The second time, everything looked completely different, and I knew that it was I who had changed and not it. Which of the following is revision of sentence 4? One of the officials from the literacy program I was working was there to meet me. A. There, was one of the officials from the literacy program I was working to meet me. B. One of the literacy program I was working's officials was there to meet me. C. As it is now. D. One of the officials from the literacy program where I would be working was there to meet me. E. One of the officials from the literacy program where I worked had been there to meet me. Answer: D Explanation: Explanation/Reference: What's missing in this sentence is where. As it stands now, it implies that literacy program is the direct object of working. Choices D. and E. correct the error, but D. makes undesirable changes to the verb tenses. E. is the best answer.
