NEW QUESTION: 1A. Option AB. Option DC. Option CD. Option B Answer: D

NEW QUESTION: 2 Nonexempt employees are not required to be paid to attend training events when four certain conditions are met. Which one of the following is not one of the four conditions to determine if a nonexempt employee should be paid for training?
A. The event's attendance is documented in performance review
B. The event must be voluntary
C. The event must be outside normal work hours
D. The event may not be job related
Answer: A
Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Answer option B is correct. The documentation of attendance in a performance review would cause the event to be a requirement or at least affect the person's employment. This would disqualify the event from being non-paid. The fourth requirement is that no other work is performed during the event. Answer options A, D, and C are incorrect. The event must be outside normal work hours, the event must be voluntary, and the event may not be job related are among the four requirements to keep the event as a non-paid event.
