NEW QUESTION: 3During process discovery, the business subject matter experts (SMEs) make the following statement about how the process starts: "Today, our users access the database that stores new orders and copy that information manually onto a request form. This form is passed from one participant to another during the process. In our future state, we would like IBM Business Process Manager V8.0 to connect to the database directly, so that we don't have to manually create our request forms." The IT representatives from the client indicate that this should be possible. How should the BPM analyst respond to this?A. Gather all the technical details for this integration.B. Capture that the process should start systematically and identify high level inputs to the process.C. Defer this discussion for the BPM developers.D. Inform the business SMEs that this is not possible as the process must start with a Human Task.Answer: B

NEW QUESTION: 4You are currently performing the Select Sellers process. You are considering two bids from companies on your qualified sellers list. Your project is on a tight budget, and you have been instructed by senior management to consider the cost over any other criteria. You used the company that submitted the lower bid on a previous project, and you were not happy with their work. The company that submitted the higher bid has a reputation for treating their clients well, flying project managers first class and giving them accommodations in five-star hotels. What is the BEST way to handle this situation?A. Rewrite the RFP so that the company with the lowest bid is excludedB. Select the company with the lowest bidC. Select the company with the higher bidD. Give the manager at the company with the higher bid information that will allow him to tailor his bid so that it better meets your needsAnswer: BExplanation:There are a few really important ethical issues in this question. Your senior management was clear about the rules: go with the lowest bidder. And that's what you should do. But on top of that, you shouldn't choose your sellers based on perks that you'll get - that's called a bribe. And you should always refuse bribes.
