NEW QUESTION: 1You are a project manager for the Swirling Seas Cruises food division. You're considering two different projects regarding food services on the cruise lines. The initial cost of Project Fish'n for Chips will be $800,000, with expected cash inflows of $300,000 per quarter. Project Picnic's payback period is six months. Which project should you recommend?A. Project Fish'n for Chips, because the costs on Project Picnic are unknown.B. Project Picnic, because Project Fish'n for Chips' payback period is two months longer than Project Picnic's.C. Project Picnic, because Project Fish'n for Chips' payback period is four months longer than Project Picnic's.D. Project Fish'n for Chips, because its payback period is two months shorter than Project Picnic's.Answer: BExplanation: The payback period for Project Fish'n for Chips is eight months. This project will receive $300,000 every three months, or $100,000 per month. The $800,000 will be paid back in eight months.

NEW QUESTION: 2Which of the following should be considered to ensure that risk responses that are adopted are cost-effective and are aligned with business objectives?Each correct answer represents a part of the solution. Choose three.A. Identify the risk in business termsB. Adopt only pre-defined risk responses of businessC. Recognize the business risk appetiteD. Follow an integrated approach in businessAnswer: A,C,DExplanation:Explanation/Reference: Explanation: Risk responses require a formal approach to issues, opportunities and events to ensure that solutions are cost-effective and are aligned with business objectives. The following should be considered: While preparing the risk response, identify the risk in business terms like loss of productivity, disclosure of confidential information, lost opportunity costs, etc. Recognize the business risk appetite. Follow an integrated approach in business. Risk responses requiring an investment should be supported by a carefully planned business case that justifies the expenditure outlines alternatives and describes the justification for the alternative selected. Incorrect Answers: C: There is no such requirement to follow the pre-defined risk responses. If some new risk responses are discovered during the risk management of a particular project, they should be noted down in lesson learned document so that project manager working on some other project could also utilize them.
