Explanation:

NEW QUESTION: 2Big Bo is an investment adviser representative who has a lot of the members of a well-known professional football team as clients. In advertising his services, Big Bo canA. list the names of the players he's advising as long as he has their written permission to do so.B. list the names of the players he's advising as long as he lists the names of all his other clients, too.C. use testimonials from any of the players who willingly provide them without compensation.D. list the names of the players he's advising as long as he doesn't provide any other specifics, such as the amount each one has invested with him.Answer: AExplanation: Explanation/Reference:Explanation: In advertising his services, Big Bo can list the names of the players he's advising only if he has their written permission to do so. Under both NASAA Model Rules and the Investment Adviser Act of 1940, an investment adviser representative may not use client testimonials in their advertisements, regardless of whether the testimonials are willingly provided and uncompensated.

NEW QUESTION: 3You have a computer that runs Windows Vista Service Pack 2 (SP2).You need to upgrade the computer to Windows 7.What should you do?A. From Windows Vista, run Setup.exe from the Windows 7 installation media and select the Upgrade option.B. From Windows Vista, run Setup.exe from the Windows 7 installation media and select the Custom option.C. Start the computer from the Windows 7 installation media and select the Custom (advanced) option.D. Start the computer from the Windows 7 installation media and select the Upgrade option.Answer: AExplanation:Upgrading Windows Vista to Windows 7 instructions Access the Windows 7 installation source and double-click Setup.exe. When prompted by User Account Control, click Allow. This loads the Install Windows page. Click Install Now.Other Notes You can upgrade computers running Windows Vista to Windows 7. When you upgrade from Windows Vista to Windows 7, all documents, settings, applications, and user accounts that existed on the computer running Windows Vista are available when the upgrade is finished. The advantage to an upgrade is that it allows you to keep the current application configuration. When you perform a migration, you need to reinstall the user's applications on the new computer. As mentioned previously, this can be problematic in organizations that are not careful about keeping track of which specific set of applications are installed on each user's computer. Prior to attempting to perform the upgrade from Windows Vista to Windows 7, you should run the Windows 7 Upgrade Advisor. The Windows 7 Upgrade Advisor is an application that you can download from Microsoft's Web site that will inform you if Windows 7 supports a computer running the current hardware and software configuration of Windows Vista. Prior to running the Windows 7 Upgrade Advisor, you should ensure that all hardware that you want to use with Windows 7, such as printers, scanners, and cameras, are connected to the computer. The Upgrade Advisor generates a report that informs you of which applications and devices are known to have problems with Windows 7. A similar compatibility report is generated during the upgrade process, but the version created by the Windows 7 Upgrade Advisor is more likely to be up to date.
