NEW QUESTION: 3A firm in a fragmented industry must position itself by adopting a competitive strategy appropriate to the industry. Which of the following is most clearly a focus strategy?A. Specialization by product typeB. Development of formula facilitiesC. An emphasis on low overhead and low payrollD. Backward integrationAnswer: AExplanation: A focus strategy is directed at a buyer group, segment of the product line, or geographic area. Thus, the strategic target is narrow compared with an industry wide strategy designed to achieve cost leadership or product differentiation. Specialization by product type or segment is a focus strategy. This focus may enhance bargaining power with suppliers. It may also increase differentiation because of the perceived expertise and image. The downside is reduced growth opportunities.
