NEW QUESTION: 1 Davis, CPA, accepted an engagement to audit the financial statements of Tech Resources, a nonissuer. Before the completion of the audit, Tech requested Davis to change the engagement to a compilation of financial statements. Before Davis agrees to change the engagement, Davis is required to consider the: A. Option A B. Option C C. Option D D. Option B
Answer: D
Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: Choice "B" is correct. When an auditor is requested to change the engagement from an audit to a compilation, the auditor must consider the effort needed to complete the audit, the cost of completing the audit, and the reasons for the client's request. If the audit is substantially complete or an insignificant effort is needed to complete the audit, the auditor should consider the propriety of agreeing to the request. In addition, if the reason for the request is to limit the scope of the auditor's examination, the auditor must consider whether the information affected by the scope limitation is incorrect, incomplete, or otherwise unsatisfactory. A change in circumstance (e.g., an audit is no longer necessary) or a misunderstanding as to the nature of an audit would, on the other hand, be considered a reasonable basis for the change. Choices "A", "C", and "D" are incorrect, based on the above Explanation.
