NEW QUESTION: 1For a critical project, a new team has been formed from various departments. The project manager should start team building by:A. Assembling the team and asking the members to achieve a milestone in a small iteration.B. Taking the team offsite for icebreaker sessions and other activities to ensure team members get to know each other.C. Creating a project charter, documenting roles and responsibilities of each member, and sending it to the team members.D. Assembling the team and discussing roles and responsibilities of each member on the team.Answer: D

NEW QUESTION: 2Mark is the project manager of the NHQ Project. Mark wants to create a salience model as part of his communications planning and scheduling. What does a salience model do for a project?A. Groups stakeholders based on their power and interest.B. Classifies stakeholders based on their influence and impact.C. Describes classes of stakeholders based on their power, urgency, and legitimacy.D. Describes classes of stakeholders based on their power and influence.Answer: C
Explanation: A salience model uses three values to classify stakeholders: power, urgency, and legitimacy in the project. The salience model is a technique for categorizing stakeholders according to their importance. The various difficulties faced by the project managers are as follows: How to choose the right stakeholders? How to prioritize competing claims of the stakeholders communication needs? Stakeholder salience is determined by the evaluation of their power, legitimacy and urgency in the organization. Power is defined as the ability of the stakeholder to impose their will. Urgency is the need for immediate action. Legitimacy shows the stakeholders participation is appropriate or not. . The model allows the project manager to decide the relative salience of a particular stakeholder. Answer option D is incorrect. This is a description of a power/interest grid. Answer option B is incorrect. This is a description of an influence/impact grid over the project. Answer option C is incorrect. This is a description of a power/impact over the project.
