NEW QUESTION: 2Which of the following statements is true?A. The shares of a closed-end investment company almost never trade at exactly its NAV. Rather, shares typically trade at a 5 to 20% discount to the NAV.B. The shares of an open-end investment company usually trade at a 10 to 25% discount to its NAV, but in some relatively rare instances, the shares trade exactly at NAV.C. The shares of an open-end investment company usually trade at exactly its net asset value (NAV), but in some relatively rare instances, the shares trade at a small discount or premium to the NAV.D. The shares of a closed-end investment company usually trade at exactly its NAV, but in some relatively rare instances, the shares trade at a small discount or premium to the NAV.E. The shares of a closed-end mutual fund almost never trade exactly at its NAV. Rather, shares typically trade at a 5 to 20% discount to the NAV.Answer: A*Explanation: Explanation/Reference:Explanation:Open-end investment companies continue to sell and repurchase shares after their initial public offerings.They sell shares at the net asset value with or without sales charges, and repurchase shares at the net asset value with or without redemption fees. The shares of closed end investment companies,however, are rarely sold or redeemed by the funds, but typically trade on a stock market. Over the long-run, the shares tend to trade at a 5 to 20% discount to their net asset value (NAV). There is no such thing as a closed-end mutual fund. Only open-end investment companies are referred to as mutual funds.

NEW QUESTION: 4

貴社の財務部門は、Webベースではない新しいTCPアプリケーションツールを購入して、サーバーの1つで実行しました。特定の財務担当者は、営業時間外にソフトウェアにリモートアクセスする必要があります。これらの従業員には、PCに対する「管理者」特権がありません。

このアプリケーションを実行できるようにSSL VPNトンネルを構成する正しい方法は何ですか？

A. SSL VPNトンネルが確立されるたびにCisco AnyConnect SSL VPN

Clientを財務担当者にダウンロードするようにCisco ASAアプライアンスを設定します。

B. 従業員のクライアントレスSSL VPNポータルで「金融ツール」VNCブックマークを構成します。

C. アプリケーションに最適なプラグインを構成します。

D. アプリケーションのスマートトンネルを構成します。

Answer: D Explanation: Explanation

<http://www.cisco.com/en/US/docs/security/asa/asa80/configuration/guide/webvpn.html> A smart tunnel is a connection between a TCP-based application and a private site, using a clientless (browser based) SSL VPN session with the security appliance as the pathway, and the security appliance as a proxy server. You can identify applications to which you want to grant smart tunnel access, and specify the local path to each application. For applications running on Microsoft Windows, you can also require a match of the SHA-1 hash of the checksum as a condition for granting smart tunnel access. Lotus SameTime and Microsoft Outlook Express are examples of applications to which you might want to grant smart tunnel access. Configuring smart tunnels requires one of the following procedures, depending on whether the application is a client or is a web-enabled application:

- *Create one or more smart tunnel lists of the client applications, then assign the list to the group policies or local user policies for whom you want to provide smart tunnel access.
- *Create one or more bookmark list entries that specify the URLs of the web-enabled applications eligible for smart tunnel access, then assign the list to the DAPs, group policies, or local user policies for whom you want to provide smart tunnel access. You can also list web-enabled applications for which to automate the submission of login credentials in smart tunnel connections over clientless SSL VPN sessions.

Why Smart Tunnels? Smart tunnel access lets a client TCP-based application use a browser-based VPN connection to connect to a service. It offers the following advantages to users, compared to plug-ins and the legacy technology, port forwarding:

- *Smart tunnel offers better performance than plug-ins.
- *Unlike port forwarding, smart tunnel simplifies the user experience by not requiring the user connection of the local application to the local port.
- *Unlike port forwarding, smart tunnel does not require users to have administrator privileges. The advantage of a plug-in is that it does not require the client application to be installed on the remote computer.

Smart Tunnel Requirements, Restrictions, and Limitations The following sections categorize the smart tunnel requirements and limitations.

General Requirements and Limitations Smart tunnel has the following general requirements and limitations:

- *The remote host originating the smart tunnel must be running a 32-bit version of Microsoft Windows Vista, Windows XP, or Windows 2000; or Mac OS 10.4 or 10.5.
- *Smart tunnel auto sign-on supports only Microsoft Internet Explorer on Windows.
- *The browser must be enabled with Java, Microsoft ActiveX, or both.
- *Smart tunnel supports only proxies placed between computers running Microsoft Windows and the security appliance. Smart tunnel uses the Internet Explorer configuration (that is, the one intended for system-wide use in Windows). If the remote computer requires a proxy server to reach the security appliance, the URL of the terminating end of the connection must be in the list of URLs excluded from proxy services. If the proxy configuration specifies that traffic destined for the ASA goes through a proxy, all smart tunnel traffic goes through the proxy. In an HTTP-based remote access scenario, sometimes a subnet does not provide user access to the VPN gateway. In this case, a proxy placed in front of the ASA to route traffic between the web and the end user's location provides web access. However, only VPN users can configure proxies placed in
