Has Stu engaged in any prohibited practices?A. No. Although municipal bonds are not suitable investments for a classic IRA, Stu obviously didn't know this and is merely guilty of stupidity.B. Yes. Municipal bonds are not suitable investments for a classic IRA, and Stu can have his license revoked or suspended.C. No. Although Stu has given investment advice, it was solicited by the client, and Stu received no additional compensation for the advice.D. Yes. Stu is an agent with a broker-dealer. He is not an investment adviser representative and is not allowed to make recommendations regarding investments to the firm's clients.Answer: BExplanation:Explanation/Reference:Explanation: Yes. When Stu recommends an investment in municipal bonds for a classic IRA account, he has made an unsuitable recommendation, which is a prohibited practice, and he can have his license revoked or suspended. Municipal bonds are not suitable investments for a classic IRA because municipal bonds pay interest that is at least free from federal taxation, so they offer a lower yield than fully taxable bonds of similar risk. The money in a classic IRA grows tax-free anyway, so the client is getting a lower yield with no benefit.
