NEW QUESTION: 1Which of the following documents must a broker-dealer deliver on or prior to the confirmation due date to a client who is purchasing a security?A. a final prospectusB. a preliminary prospectusC. a margin agreement if the purchase is being made on marginD. a hypothecation agreementAnswer: A*Explanation:A broker-dealer must deliver a final prospectus to a client who is purchasing a security either on or prior to the confirmation due date. The margin agreement need not be signed until after the initial transaction takes place. The hypothecation agreement is part of the margin agreement. As an alternative, a preliminary prospectus can be provided, but it must be accompanied by additional information that is contained in the final prospectus, but is missing from the preliminary prospectus. Therefore, Choice C, as written, is not correct.
