NEW QUESTION: 2Refer to the exhibit.Which statement is true about the downward bit?A. It informs the PE router that the LSA metric has been recently decreased to 1 and that partial SPF calculation cannot be delayed.B. It forces the CE router to install the LSA with the downward bit set into its routing table as a discard route.C. It forces the CE router to use a backup link instead of sending traffic via MPLS VPN.D. It informs the PE router that the LSA was already redistributed into BGP by another PE router and that the LSA must not be redistributed into BGP again.Answer: D*Explanation:From RFC 4577, specifically section 4.2.5.1 When a type 3 LSA is sent from a PE router to a CE router, the DN bit [OSPF-DN] in the LSA Options field MUST be set. This is used to ensure that if any CE router sends this type 3 LSA to a PE router, the PE router will not redistribute it further. When a PE router needs to distribute to a CE router a route that comes from a site outside the latter's OSPF domain, the PE router presents itself as an ASBR (Autonomous System Border Router), and distributes the route in a type 5 LSA. The DN bit [OSPF-DN] MUST be set in these LSAs to ensure that they will be ignored by any other PE routers that receive them.
