Note: There are 2 correct answers to this question. A. Validity period B. Fixed assignment to a vehicle resource C. Planning profile D. Non-working times and absences Answer: A,D

NEW QUESTION: 3 The recovery point objective is the point in time to which a system needs to be restored following a failure. A. False B. True Answer: B Explanation: The recovery point objective (RPO) is the point in time to which the system needs to be restored following a failure.

NEW QUESTION: 4 Which of the following is the MOST critical security consideration when an enterprise outsource its major part of IT department to a third party whose servers are in foreign company? A. Additional network intrusion detection sensors should be installed, resulting in additional cost B. A security breach notification may get delayed due to time difference C. Explanation: Laws and regulations of the country of origin may not be enforceable in foreign country and conversely, it is also true that laws and regulations of the foreign outsourcer may also impact the enterprise. Hence violation of applicable laws may not be recognized or rectified due to lack of knowledge of the local laws. D. Laws and regulations of the country of origin may not be enforceable in foreign country E. The enterprise could not be able to monitor the compliance with its internal security and privacy guidelines Answer: D Explanation: is incorrect. Outsourcing does not remove the enterprise's responsibility regarding internal requirements. Hence monitoring the compliance with its internal security and privacy guidelines is not a problem. Answer: A is incorrect. Security breach notification is not a problem and also time difference does not play any role in 24/7 environment. Pagers, cellular phones, telephones, etc. are there to communicate the notifications. Answer: D is incorrect. The need for additional network intrusion detection sensors is not a major problem as it can be easily managed. It only requires addition funding, but can be addressed.
