NEW QUESTION: 3 Which of the following factors can adversely affect transfer of training?A. The subject of the trainingB. A lack of job reinforcementC. Training Cost per EmployeeD. The trainer's expertise Answer: B Explanation: Answer option B is correct. A lack of job reinforcement can adversely affect transfer of training. Other adverse impacts are the result of interference from the immediate work environment and a nonsupportive organizational climate. The trainer's expertise (A) could affect how well trainees learn information but does not specifically affect transfer of training. The subject of the training (C) affects how receptive trainees are to the information but not necessarily how the information transfers to the job.
