NEW QUESTION: 1 If the reservation type is _____, the system first checks that the resource pool has sufficient resources to fulfill the requirements. A. Fixed B. Expandable
Answer: B
Explanation: If the reservation type is Expandable, the system first checks that the resource pool has sufficient resources to fulfill the requirements. -If there are sufficient resources, the action is performed. -If there are not sufficient resources, the managing server checks whether resources are available in a parent resource pool (direct parent or ancestor). If they are, the action is performed and the parent resource pool resources are reserved. If no resources are available, a message appears and the action is not performed. page 47 Resource Management Guide

NEW QUESTION: 2 A customer has determined that it is time to refresh their existing server infrastructure. The CIO's strategic direction of the organization is to utilize public cloud providers. The applications are currently running on Power Systems with Linux operating systems. What justification can promote on-premises Power Systems? A. Linux on Power applications cannot be migrated to any of the existing public cloud provider solutions which are all on Intel x86 servers and only support Canonical Ubuntu, which means that the applications have to run on Linux on Power on-premises servers. B. Moving any of the existing workloads into any known public cloud provider solution would expose the workloads to unacceptable security risks. C. Hybrid cloud solutions allow the customer to achieve the positive benefits of running on Power Systems in the public cloud while allowing the customer to isolate critical, security sensitive workload on-premises in a private cloud. D. All public cloud providers offer Power Systems cloud solutions that can be located on the customer's premises for enhanced security. Answer: D
