NEW QUESTION: 4How to Buy a GiftA(1)We buy gifts all throughout the year for many different occasions. (2)Including birthdays, weddings, and anniversaries. (3)A few simple strategies can help you pick a good gift every time.B(4)First, decide how much money you will spend on the gift. (5)This depends upon two things: how much you can afford to spend and how much you want to spend. (6)You may be able to afford $100. (7)You may only want to spend $25. (8)A maximum limit should be set so that you do not go over budget.C(9)Second, decide what sort of gift you want to give. (10)Do you want your gift to be something practical, or would you rather give something whimsical. (11)Do you want a gift that is unique, or would the receiver prefer something ordinary? (12)Do you need something that's top of the line, or would the receiver appreciate a bargain brand? (13)Even if you don't know exactly what you want to get, having an idea of the kind of gift you want can help you make the most of your time while you are shopping. (14) Determine where you can purchase the kind of gift you want within your budget. (15) For example, don't go to an upscale department store if your budget is only $25. (16) A little research can help you find the right place for your purchase. (17) That is making you, your wallet, and your gift recipient happy. Sentence 1: We buy gifts all throughout the year for many different occasions. Which correction should be made to sentence 1? A. No correction is necessary. B. Replace occasions with occasion. C. Delete throughout. D. Change by to buy. E. Insert a semicolon after year. Answer: D Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: The preposition by is a homonym of the verb buy, which means to purchase. The verb buy is what is needed in the context of this sentence. Choice b is incorrect because semicolons can be used between complete sentences but not between an independent and dependent clause. Choice c is incorrect because occasions must be plural to agree with many. Choice d is incorrect because throughout is necessary for the logic of the sentence. Choice e is incorrect because by must be changed.
