NEW QUESTION: 1David and Vivian work as Network Administrators for company Inc. David installs a printer on his Windows10 computer. The printer will be shared on the network and will be used only by the members of the Developers local group.David wants to accomplish the following goals:Prevent all other members, except those of the Developers local group, from using the printer.Members of the Developers local group will only manage print jobs sent by them.Only he and Vivian will manage the printer and all print jobs.David takes the following steps:Grant the Allow-Print permission to the Developers local group.Grant the Allow-Manage Documents and Allow-Manage Printers permissions to Vivian's and his useraccounts.Which of the above stated goals will David accomplish?A. Only the first and third goals will be accomplished.B. Only the second goal will be accomplished.C. All the three goals will be accomplished.D. Only the second and third goals will be accomplished.E. Only the first goal will be accomplished.F. Only the third goal will be accomplished.G. Only the first and second goals will be accomplished.Answer: DExplanation:Explanation/Reference:Explanation:Granting the Allow-Print permission to the Developers local group will allow members of the group to print. By default, the Everyone group has print permission. This permission entry needs to be removed to meet the first goal.When a printer is shared, all users by default can manage printing of their own documents. Therefore, the second goal is met. David granted the Allow-Manage Documents and Allow-Manage Printers permissions to Vivian's and his user accounts to manage the documents printed by other users. This meets the third goal.
