NEW QUESTION: 4 Paul Hersey and Ken Blanchard developed a situational leadership model with two dimensions: task and relationship behaviors. In this model, the delegating leadership style is appropriate when followers have:
A. Low to moderate maturity.
B. High maturity.
C. Low maturity.
D. Moderate to high maturity.
Answer: B
Explanation: The dimensions of the delegating leadership style are low task and low relationship. Consequently, task- and relationship-related behaviors are low. The leader provides little direction or support because the maturity of followers is high. They are willing and able to do what is necessary.
