NEW QUESTION: 2 A. Option E
B. Option C
C. Option A
D. Option B
Answer: A,C,D
Explanation: Explanation At minimum two-factor authentication requires two out of three regulatory-approved authentication variables such as:
* Something you know (like the PIN on your bank card or email password).
* Something you have (the physical bank card or a authenticator token).
* Something you are (biometrics like your finger print or iris pattern).

NEW QUESTION: 3 Which statement is FALSE about the ESB profile?
A. By default, ESB profile considers all messages consumed from a queue as a SOAP message.
B. By setting the transport.jms.MessageType parameter with the respective content type, you can read different message formats from a queue.
C. ESB profile can work with any JMS broker that offers JNDI support.
D. When the JMS transport is enabled on a proxy service, ESB profile will start listening on a JMS queue with the same name as the proxy service.
Answer: B

NEW QUESTION: 4 You work for an airline company and discover a series of regular payments made to a lobbying group that campaigns to allow people freedom to fly as and when they choose without being taxed for contributing to global warming. The group's website includes specific commentary that claims to 'expose the myth of global warming'. Neither your company nor the lobbying group (which describes itself as 'independent') mention the financial link between your organizations. Is this an ethical issue and why?
A. Maybe - depending on whether the lobbying group is funded by other airlines as well as your company
B. Yes - the lobbying group appears to be funded at least in part by your company so it is not independent and is therefore misleading people about its status
C. No - companies are entitled to fund any groups that they choose, particularly if it is in their financial interest. Neither party has done anything unethical
D. No - there is unlikely to be any connection between the payments and the group's aims. After all, companies regularly fund Non-Government Organizations (NGOs) and other types of organization Answer: B
