NEW QUESTION: 1A customer purchased a computer from a retail store six months ago. The hardware manufacturer installed an OEM version of Windows 7 Home Premium on the computer before shipping the computer to the retail store. The customer requires technical support to restore the operating system to its default settings. You need to tell the customer which party is responsible for providing technical support. Who should you tell the customer to contact?
A. the hardware manufacturer that preinstalled the operating system
B. Microsoft Support
C. Microsoft Services
D. the retail store where the client computer was purchased

Answer: A
Explanation: The OEM is required to provide Windows 7 support to the user that buys the PC on which it is installed. Note: * OEM versions of Windows 7 are identical to Full License Retail versions except for the following: -OEM versions do not offer any free Microsoft direct support from Microsoft support personnel -OEM licenses are tied to the very first computer you install and activate it on -OEM versions allow all hardware upgrades except for an upgrade to a different model motherboard -OEM versions cannot be used to directly upgrade from an older Windows operating system
