NEW QUESTION: 4 The following four questions all present the same scenario. For your convenience, the scenario is repeated in each question. Each question presents a different goal, question sentence, and answer choices, but the text of the scenario is exactly the same in each question in this section. You are a licensing specialist. Your customer is Fourth Coffee, a small coffee retailer that specializes in coffee beans from around the world. Company Background Fourth Coffee was founded on September 4, 2003, and has 35 employees. The company's main office and 10 retail stores are located in Canada. Due to budget constraints, Fourth Coffee does not have a dedicated IT department and can upgrade hardware and software only every four years. Network Description The main office has five desktops and two servers. One server runs Microsoft Small Business Server 2003, and the second server runs Microsoft Windows Server 2003, Standard Edition, with Microsoft Office 2003 Professional Enterprise Edition through Terminal Server. Each retail store has a new desktop that connects to the terminal server in the main office. Current Licensing Solution Before Terminal Server was deployed, some older versions of Office were acquired through Full Package Product, and some older versions were preinstalled on desktops that were purchased one year ago. Some Office licenses were purchased with Software Assurance through the Open Business program. Confusion exists as to whether Fourth Coffee is properly licensed. Business Goals Fourth Coffee expects to open a total of 10 additional stores in England and Australia in the next year. The company president wants to standardize all desktops on the latest version of Office Professional, Enterprise Edition; Windows XP Professional; and Windows Server with Terminal Server enabled. End of repeated scenario You need to recommend the appropriate tool or tools for managing Fourth Coffee's Microsoft software licenses. What should you recommend? A. <https://eopen.microsoft.com> for Open Business purchases, and a personal tracking system for retail and OEM license purchases B. <https://eopen.microsoft.com> for Software Assurance and software license purchases C. <https://www.explore.ms> for Software Assurance purchases and <https://eopen.microsoft.com> for software license purchases D. Microsoft Volume Licensing Services (MVLS) at <https://licensing.microsoft.com> for Software Assurance and software license purchases Answer: A
