Some Question sets might have more than one correct solution, while others might not have a correct solution. After you answer a Question in this section, you will NOT be able to return to it. As a result, these Questions will not appear in the review screen. You have a Microsoft 365 subscription. SharePoint administrators open several Microsoft support tickets. You need to view the status of the support tickets. Solution: From the Microsoft 365 admin center, you select Health, and then you select Message center. Does this meet the goal? A. No B. Yes Answer: A Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: Use the On the Service requests page, not the Service health page. On the Service requests page you can view the status of any service requests that you have filed on your clients' behalf. You can also search for them by supplying a reference number, or by the company name. Incorrect Answers: A: On the Service health page you can view the aggregated health status of all services. You can click on a service, for example, Exchange, to get a list of incidents for that service, and then click on the incident number to get details at incident level. References:
