C. com.ibm.cdb.pro.queueSize
D. com.collation.discover.observer.topopumpcount

NEW QUESTION: 2 If increasing a manager's span of control, what would that look like to the manager?
A. Manager is now allowed to punish his employees more than he used to be able to
B. Manager gives up a portion of his group to specialize in one area
C. Where the manager used to only control one department he now controls multiple functions and departments
D. Manager is able to give bonuses to his employees more than he used to
Answer: C
Explanation: Span of control takes a manager and increases the amount of people/ responsibilities. A good example of this is when a manager is selected to manage more than one group/ department, where he used to only manage one department. This is increasing the manager's span of control.

NEW QUESTION: 3 A buyer has negotiated a fixed-price-incentive-fee contract with the seller. The contract has a target cost of $200,000, a target profit of $30,000, and a target price of $230,000. The buyer also has negotiated a ceiling price of $270,000 and a share ratio of 70/30. If the seller completes the contract with actual costs of $170,000, how much profit will the buyer pay the seller?
A. $51,000
B. $21,000
C. $39,000
D. $35,000
Answer: C
Explanation/Reference: Explanation: To calculate the fee that the buyer must pay, actual costs are compared with the target cost. If actual costs are less than the target cost, the seller will earn profit that is additional to the target profit. If actual costs are more than the target cost, the seller will lose profit from the target profit. The amount of profit is determined by the share ratio (with the buyer's share listed first). In this example, the seller is under target cost by $30,000. That amount will be split 70/30. So the buyer keeps $21,000, and the seller receives an additional $9,000 added to the target profit, which is the incentive. Total fee is $39,000.
