NEW QUESTION: 1A. steady state, boot, and rawB. logical, logon, and rawC. functional, logoff, and bootD. steady state, logon, and bootAnswer: D

NEW QUESTION: 2Which of the following implementation steps would be appropriate for a public wireless hot-spot?A. Open system authenticationB. Disable SSID broadcastC. Reduce power levelD. MAC filterAnswer: A*Explanation:For a public wireless hot-spot, you want members of the public to be able to access the wireless network without having to provide them with a password. Therefore, Open System Authentication is the best solution.Open System Authentication (OSA) is a process by which a computer can gain access to a wireless network that uses the Wired Equivalent Privacy (WEP) protocol. With OSA, a computer equipped with a wireless modem can access anyWEP network and receive files that are not encrypted.For OSA to work, the service set identifier (SSID) of the computer should match the SSID of the wireless access point.The SSID is a sequence of characters that uniquely names a wireless local area network (WLAN). The process occurs in three steps. First, the computer sends a request for authentication to the access point. Then the access point generates an authentication code, usually at random, intended for use only during that session. Finally, the computer accepts the authentication code and becomes part of the network as long as the session continues and the computer remains within range of the original access point.If it is necessary to exchange encrypted data between a WEP network access point and a wireless-equipped computer, a stronger authentication process called Shared Key Authentication (SKA) is required.Incorrect Answers:A. Reducing the power level of a wireless access point does not provide a mechanism for members of the public to connect to the wireless network. Reducing the power level of a wireless access point would just make the range of the wireless network smaller.B. Disabling SSID broadcasting for the wireless network would make the network invisible to users' computers. The user would need to know the name (SSID) of the network and enter it manually in order to connect to the network.This is not an appropriate solution for a public Wi-FiHOTSPOT.D. MAC filtering is the process of restricting network access to a list of known MAC addresses. As you will not know the MAC address of any user's computers, then this is not an appropriate solution for a public Wi-Fi HOTSPOT.

NEW QUESTION: 3 Note: This question is part of a series of questions that present the same scenario. Each question in the series contains a unique solution that might meet stated goals. Some questions sets might have more than one correct solution, while others might not have a correct solution. After you answer a question in this section, you will NOT be able to return to it. As a result, these questions will not appear in the review screen. You manage a Microsoft SQL Server environment with several databases. You need to ensure that queries use statistical data and do not initialize values for local variables. Solution: You enable the LEGACY_CARDINALITY_ESTIMATION option for the databases. Does the solution meet the goal?
A. No B. Yes Answer: A Explanation: Explanation/Reference: Explanation: LEGACY_CARDINALITY_ESTIMATION = { ON | OFF | PRIMARY } Enables you to set the query optimizer cardinality estimation model to the SQL Server 2012 and earlier version independent of the compatibility level of the database. This is equivalent to Trace Flag 9481. References: <https://msdn.microsoft.com/en-us/library/mt629158.aspx>

NEW QUESTION: 4 The company Security team requires that all data uploaded into an Amazon S3 bucket must be encrypted. The encryption keys must be highly available and the company must be able to control access on a per-user basis, with different users having access to different encryption keys. Which of the following architectures will meet these requirements? (Choose two.)
A. Use Amazon S3 server-side encryption with customer-managed keys, and use AWS CloudHSM to manage the keys. Use CloudHSM client software to control access to the keys that are generated.
B. Use Amazon S3 server-side encryption with customer-managed keys, and use two AWS CloudHSM instances configured in high-availability mode to manage the keys. Use IAM to control access to the keys that are generated in CloudHSM.
C. Use Amazon S3 server-side encryption with Amazon S3-managed keys. Allow Amazon S3 to generate an AWS/S3 master key, and use IAM to control access to the data keys that are generated.
D. Use Amazon S3 server-side encryption with AWS KMS-managed keys, create multiple customer master keys, and use key policies to control access to them.
E. Use Amazon S3 server-side encryption with customer-managed keys, and use two AWS CloudHSM instances configured in high-availability mode to manage the keys. Use the Cloud HSM client software to control access to the keys that are generated.
Answer: D, E Explanation: Explanation <http://websecuritypatterns.com/blogs/2018/03/01/encryption-and-key-management-in-aws-kms-vs-cloudhsm-myths-and-realities/>
